

Resumen

Título: Live-In CAREGIVER or PHYSIOTHERAPIST in GERMANY

Descripción:

FRESH JOB Ltd is founded in 2007 and we specialise on healthcare recruitment. Through our cooperation partners we have expanded our business to Great Britain, Poland and the Italian market. Job Description: Our customer is a 24-year-old young man from Germany who is looking for a cheerful carer who would help and motivate him in every day life. The young man has a spinal injury and is unfortunately handicapped and needs a carer who could help him to cope with every day life and physiotherapy exercises. Perfect candidate would have experience in physiotherapy and/or working as a caregiver. Responsibilities include: • Helping to raise motivation. • Daily helping with physiotherapy exercises. • Cleaning. • Cooking. • Help to bathe and to use sanitary facilities. • Work time from 16:00 - 07:00. Requirements: • Previous experience as caregiver or physiotherapist. • Ireland or the European Union Member State. • Completed a nationally recognized physiotherapy education. • English language skills, both written and spoken. • Very good communication skills and empathy. • Skill to perform tasks independently. • Skills and desire to work as a live-in long-term caregiver. • Preferable age for a caregiver would be 19-25, as is the age of the young man. The company offers: • Modern working environment. • A part-time job. • Free LIVE IN accommodation including free food and drink. • Ability to develop professionally as a physiotherapist. • Employment contract for an unlimited period, but not less than 1 year. • Transfer from airport to accommodation. • Very good salary. • The opportunity to make a difference in a young man's life. Additional information: We expect to apply caregivers regardless of the specialization.
